Phuket: Thailand's Pearl of the South

Basking in the warm waters of the Andaman Sea, cruising among lush, verdant islands and dining on some of the world's best seafood are perhaps only some of the endless activities that one can do in Phuket, one of Asia's best resorts. Its serene yet radiant beauty has been admired and widely talked about by the many vacationers to this island paradise who have become jaded with the flashy, crowded, polluted, and expensive playgrounds of the world.

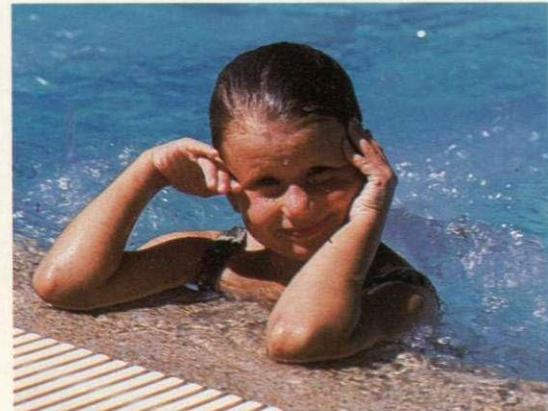

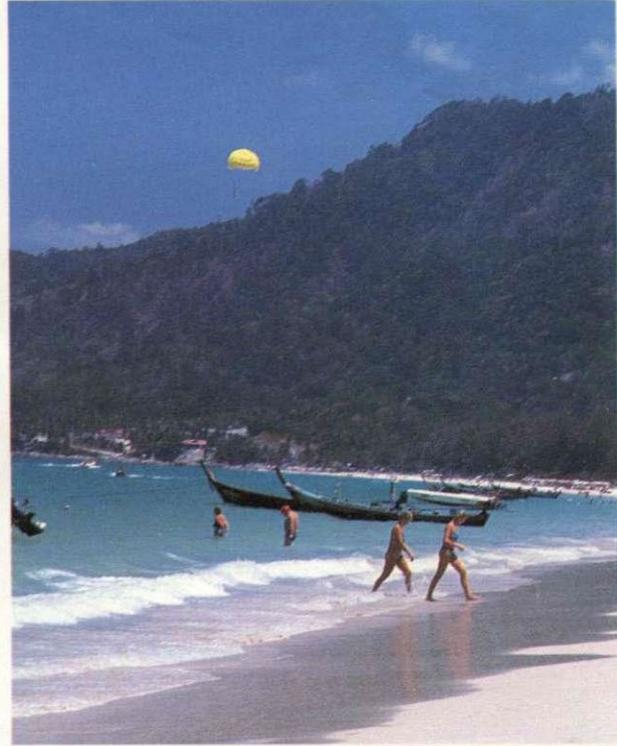

In fact, Phuket, although its pleasures are still relatively simple and unspoiled, features many great characteristics - ranging from the bustling market and trading centres to peaceful fishing villages and exquisite powdery white-sand beaches.

And in Phuket, the two Merlin hotels offer the best of each of these contrasts.

The Phuket Merlin Hotel, inaugurated in 1980, combines all the advantages of a modern hotel and the charm of a provincial centre. Since then, the in-town hotel has been a popular venue for businessmen who want to mix work and relaxation.

About thirty minutes' drive from Phuket town is Patong Beach, one of Phuket's finest beaches which has emerged as an international resort centre for people from all over the world, and the scene of most of Phuket's free-wheeling night life. Here is the location of Patong Merlin, the most enchanting hotel along the beach.

The perfect setting for a carefree holiday

Whether one's ideal holiday means total relaxation in an idyllic tropical setting, the enjoyment of a wide choice of water sports, or feast on truly gastronomic seafood delights, it is realised at Patong Merlin - the hotel which offers just about everything your heart desires.

At Patong Merlin, the Thais' famous tradition of gracious hospitality is well-preserved. Every guest is welcome with a warm and friendly greeting, and a complimentary welcome drink to quench his thirst after a hot, sunny trip.

Patong Merlin Hotel opened its doors to visitors in January 1986, with only 80 rooms. A year later, another 57 luxurious rooms were added to serve the ever-increasing number of guests. Another expansion was made in 1988, making the total number of rooms to 210 today. More recreational facilities were also added such as a gym, music room, and a swimming pool. However, with the continuous boom in Thailand's tourism industry, the hotel is expected to accommodate more visitors to this island resort and also upgrade its facilities. A third expansion project which will commence in June this year will include additional guest rooms, a tennis court, a restaurant, and a swimming pool.

Patong Merlin guests wanting to go to the heart of bustling Phuket town can take the free-of-charge shuttle bus service, four times daily, which takes them to Phuket Merlin. A special pass is also provided for Patong Merlin guests should they intend to use Phuket Merlin's facilities.

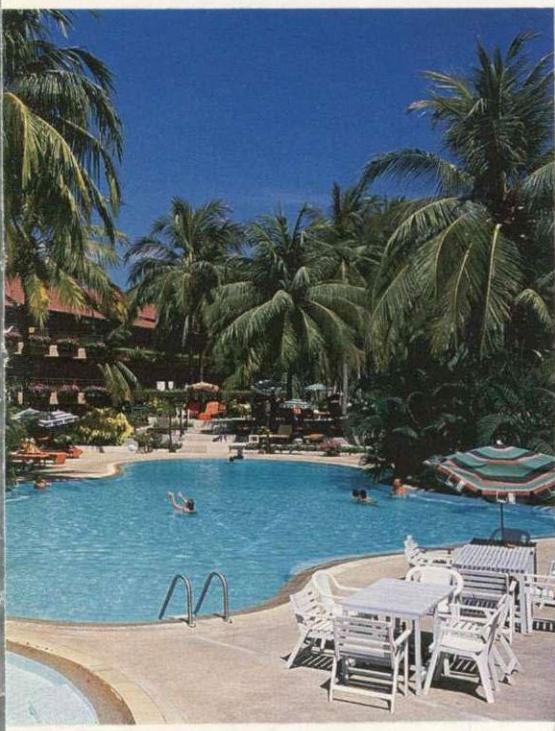

An impressive structure

One will certainly appreciate the real charm of Phuket while staying at Patong Merlin. The low-rise hotel which represents the province's architecture as well as reflects the local people's many lifestyles was designed by Phuket resident Santi Chansaeng while the hotel's interior aimed to set the mood for the escapist's holiday was done by Chitmet Chongmankong.

All of the 210 air-conditioned rooms, including four junior suites and one presidential suite, are equipped with radio, television and a fully-stocked mini bar. A private balcony in each room overlooks a panoramic view of lush coconut plantations and landscaped gardens that surround the hotel's swimming pools. Hotel guests even have the choice of parquet, carpet or wood plank flooring.

Dining, wining, or simply relaxing

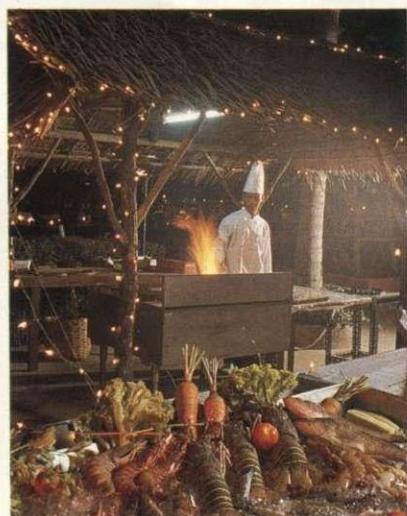

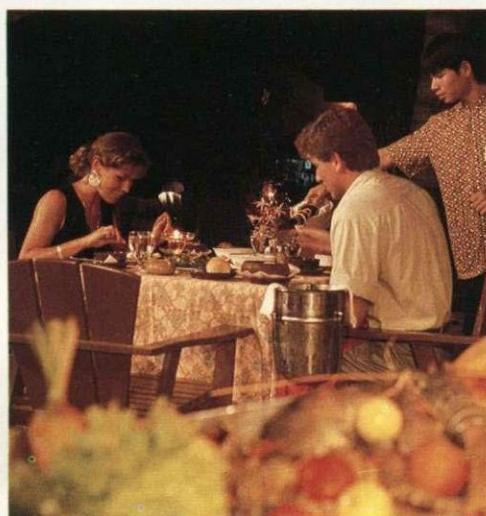

The "Ton Yang Coffee Shop", located on the hotel's second floor reflects an important local industry - the rubber plantation - one of the original occupations of Phuket residents. Serving international dishes to please even the most fastidious epicurean, this open-air restaurant is rusticly decorated with beautiful wood beams and pillars, creating just the right feeling to a wonderful meal.

Just beside the Ton Yang Coffee Shop is the "Mine Lounge". Also reflecting one of Phuket's important activities - tin mining, the lounge is open to the gentle breezes of the Andaman Sea and is the perfect place to cool off by experimenting exotic mixtures of fruits, liquors or cocktails.

The nights at Patong Merlin are always fantastic. A variety of nightcaps served at the music room, combined with sweet and lovely tunes from the "Tyro" band, is an ingredient of a romantic night.

With a full range of first-class facilities, Patong Merlin is the perfect resort for any holidaymaker, to soak up the sun on the huge white sandy beach and revel in the blue, unpolluted sea, or simply laze beside the pool.

Who says working has to be tedious?

A business meeting, seminar or conference at the Patong Merlin can be both business and pleasure. The hotel offers the perfect venue for a meeting of 50 to 80 persons with a full range of audio-visual equipment and a group of professional staff that will ensure smooth and productive meetings.

And after a day of strenuous work, what else is a better way of relaxing than lazing in the inviting beach with a refreshing drink to start the evening. Then, feast on local delicacies in Patong Merlin's Thai Restaurant - the highlight of the evening!

A variety of recreational and sports activities

Aside from the long stretch of Patong Beach, another favourite place for sun-bathers is around Patong Merlin's two large free-form swimming pools complete with a jacuzzi - where one can also enjoy the many refreshing drinks and delicious snacks while basking on the sun-deck chairs.

For those who prefer indoor exercises, a multitude of workout equipment are provided in the gym, which opens daily from 10:00 am to 6:00 pm.

Next to the gym is the games room, where fun-lovers can enjoy such challenging games as snooker, darts, video games, scrabble, bridge and poker. Tasty snacks and beverages are also served.

Golf enthusiasts staying at Patong Merlin are also given access to the nearby Phuket Golf and Country Club, the only international-standard, 18-hole golf course in Phuket.
